

Overview

Dentons Hamilton Harrison & Mathews provides first-rate and pragmatic legal advice in both international and domestic arbitration proceedings. Our team is experienced in representing parties in arbitration proceedings in all commercial sectors including financial services, transportation disputes, oil and gas, hospitality and energy. Our lawyers have an excellent understanding of the arbitration procedure before various forums and will guide you through the entire process including the recognition and enforcement of the arbitral award.

Representative Experience

- Confidential client: Defending a claim against an insurer in an arbitration relating to an aviation accident claim under an aviation insurance policy, and a claim for an additional award not covered by the arbitral award.
- Confidential client: Acting for the leading power generating company in Kenya before the Public Procurement and Administrative Review Board, the High Court and before the Court of Appeal in a matter where it terminated an award of tender after discovering that the financial documentation of the winning bidder was inconsistent with the tender.
