

Overview

We use our extensive knowledge of competition law and enforcement to help get the deal done, resolve a dispute or solve a business challenge. We handle competition and merger control applications, abuse of dominance, restrictive trade practices, cartels and other anti-competitive agreements, anti-trust investigations and disputes, public procurement and all matters regarding competitive tendering both under Kenyan law and the COMESA Competition Regulations. We also advise clients on the consumer protection laws contained under the Kenyan Constitution, the Consumer Protection Act, the Competition Act, the Kenya Information and Communication Act and supporting regulations and/or guidelines.

Representative Experience

- Confidential client: Advised a multinational brewing and beverage company through the competition law requirements under Kenyan law of its merger. We made applications to the Competition Authority (the Authority) at different stages of change of control and convinced the Authority to accept the single entity principle in determining that the distribution agreement did not require an approval
- Confidential client: Advised a global destination management specialist: on all the Kenyan law aspects of its acquisition of a local destination management company.
- Confidential clients: Advised a consortium of Private Equity Funds: on all aspects of its acquisition of an equity interest in a Kenyan Bank and an injection of additional capital to increase the bank's capital base.
- Confidential client: Advised a private equity firm on all the legal aspects in its acquisition of up to 75% in a company in the health sector.
