

Overview

We have expertise in constitutional and administrative law matters under the Constitution, Fair Administrative Action Act and other relevant statutes. In this respect, the firm has advised on constitutional provisions on the Bill of Rights, Elections, Land, Citizenship, Devolved Government and Public Finance. The firm is currently representing various clients in prosecuting and defending constitutional references and judicial review proceedings.

Representative Experience

- Confidential client: Acted in the two presidential election petitions filed following the presidential election held on 8 May 2017 and the fresh election held on 26 October 2017. The cases revolved around the legitimacy of the election and the election process.
- Confidential client: Acted for a leading commercial bank in a constitutional petition seeking a declaration that the interest charges raised in connection with the bank's mobile lending product were in breach of the Banking (Amendment) Act, 2016 and unconstitutional. The case was of great public interest as the product is used by a large number of people.
