

Overview

For six years running we have been highly ranked in tier 1 in litigation and dispute resolution in Kenya by the leading international legal directory, Chambers & Partners. Our team of lawyers has been involved in successfully advising clients ranging from corporates to government agencies on risk and conflict management. Over time, the firm has gained specialty knowledge in commercial and contract disputes, election disputes, fraud, intellectual property disputes, employment disputes, pensions disputes, public law litigations, real estate litigation and planning disputes as well as restructuring and insolvency proceedings. Many of our clients operate in sectors frequently targeted by class action suits and public interest litigation which we are well equipped to handle.
