

Michi Kirimi

Partner

Partner

Nairobi

D +254 20 3258272

michi.kirimi@dentons.com

Overview

Michi Kirimi is a partner at Dentons Hamilton Harrison & Mathews. Michi has over 16 years experience in commercial litigation and arbitration with focus on banking, insurance, employment, intellectual property and commercial law. She has also been involved in significant cases dealing with the Kenyan Public Procurement Law, Tax Review and Constitutional Petitions. Michi regularly represents clients in ICC arbitration proceedings, as well as employment and insurance litigation.

Activities and Affiliations

Prior and Present Employment

- Partner, Dentons Hamilton Harrison & Mathews (formerly Hamilton Harrison & Mathews) (2005 to date)
- Associate, Hamilton Harrison & Mathews (Nov 2001- May 2005)
- Associate, at Wainaina Ileri & Company, Advocates (1999 – Oct 2001)
- Associate, at AGN Kamau & Kimani (1998 – 1999)

Areas of focus

Practices

- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Public Procurement
- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Tax

- Arbitration
- Banking and Finance
- Capital Markets
- Competition, Antitrust and Consumer Protection
- Constitutional and Administrative

Industry sectors

- Aviation

Region

- Africa

Education

- Kenya School of Law, 1998, Postgraduate Diploma in Law, (Bar Finals)
- University of Nairobi, 1997, Bachelor of Laws, Upper Division (hons)

Admissions and qualifications

- Advocate, High Court of Kenya, 1998